Subject: Voluntary Agreements – Renewal of Class B Licenses:

App. 26602: Patron's Convenience Store, 3235 Penn. Ave, S.E.
App. 32231: Lee's Mini Market, 3853 Alabama. Ave, S.E.
App. 25050: People's Market, 2518 Penn. Ave., S.E.

On Tuesday, February 5th, 2002, ANC 7B Commissioners Grant, Smith, Davis, and Chamberlain met with owners of the above three businesses, and all three businesses signed the enclosed voluntary agreements which address most of the concerns voiced by residents.

For the record, the agreements do not address one of the biggest concerns, the sale of single beers by these establishments. The establishments would not agree to ban these sales, given that many of their competitors could continue to sell singles, and they would lose business. Therefore ANC 7B continues to strongly support a city-wide ban on single beers.

Assuming these agreements become part of the official ABRA record and are legally binding, ANC 7B withdraws its opposition to the renewal of Class B licenses for these establishments.

Therefore, pursuant to a phone conversation between you and ANC 7B office manager Marjorie Ashby, ANC 7B will not be represented at hearings scheduled for February 20, 2002.

Sincerely,

Kathy Chamberlain, Secretary, ANC 7B
